LIST OF JUDGES FOR HORSE SHOW

Four from the North, One from Maryland and Two from Virginia.

C. W. WATSON'S GREAT STABLE

Norfolk Has Changed Her Date
So That Her Show Follows
Richmond.

The judges for the Richmond Horse Show will be as follows:

HARNESS HORSES.
R. F. Carman, Huntington, L. I.
Thomas A. Maitland, Mamaroneck, N. Y.

ROADSTERS.
R. F. Carman, Huntington, L. I.

HUNTERS.
A. S. Craven, Albemarle county, Va.
James McK. Merriman, Baltimore.
Alfred B. Macley, New York.

PARK HACKS.
James T. Hyde, New York.
Charles H. Warrump, Redlocksburg.
Alfred B. Macley, New York.

Among the many men who have from time to time entered the horse show field no man has forged to the front as quickly as Mr. C. W. Watson, of Baltimore. Coming to the show last year, he was one of the largest and best stables of show horses in the country. He was the leading exhibitor at Atlantic City, Bay Shore and Baltimore this spring. At each of these shows he stood out in the bright light, as he aims to buy the best that the market can secure. At Bay Shore he sprung his celebrated new pair of hackneys, Katty Gray and Norina, where they won numerous blues. At Atlantic City he created a sensation with the hackney mare, Ringing Bells, formerly Lady Opar, and it is safe to say that he creates another sensation at Newport when he drives into the ring with his latest purchases, Revenue and Eloquence, a handsome pair of chestnuts 15.1-2 hands, that he bought from Jay F. Carlisle this week. They are said by experts to be the best pair of show horses of their size in the country. They won the blue ribbon at the show, and the Richmond show last fall in class 48, where Lord Roberts and Harold H. Lord Burrell and Lord Belfast and Don and Fife finished behind them. They are a high class pair of trotting-bred high-steppers with class, style and quality, and will land many a blue ribbon for their new owner.

Blue-Ribbon String.
Mr. Watson will enter his blue ribbon string here in October, and, besides the recent purchases, will show the great going "Lord Baltimore," "Virginia," "West Virginia," "My Maryland," "Mazie," "Sue Kearley," "Minut," "Mindful," "Ruffles," "Clifton," "The Master," "Determinator," "Vindicator," "Helen Miller," and many others. Mr. Watson carried off the honors at the Richmond show last year, dominating the harness classes, and winning as he pleased.

"Lord Baltimore" was the popular favorite with the crowd, and so pleased was Mr. Watson with his success that he presented the Richmond Horse Show Association with the "Lord Baltimore Cup," valued at $500, which will be offered this year for six horses, appointments to count and owners to drive.

The recent purchases of Mr. Watson, "Revenue" and "Eloquence," were also seen here at the show, when they won many ribbons. "Eloquence" is a chestnut mare eight years old and her mate, "Revenue," is a chestnut gelding, a year younger.

Vanderbilt Not to Exhibit.
President John Thomas Anderson, of the Richmond Horse Show, is authority for the statement that Mr. Alfred A. Vanderbilt will not exhibit at the show this year. Mr. Vanderbilt has written that imperative engagements will keep him in the North. It may be, however, that he will send his string of show horses.

Jack Donnelly, who will have charge of the stables of Miss Gertrude Miller and Mr. Harrison, will give an exhibition of four-hand driving, which will be a revelation to the untitled.

Among those who will show hunters is Mr. A. D. Benner, of Warrenton, who has an excellent string, including "King Edward," "Soubrette" and "Snip Nose."

The shows of the open-air circuit are about over. Warrenton, which opens on Wednesday of this week, being the last of the season.

There are no shows scheduled for September, and the horses will have a long rest until Richmond, on the 8th of October, when they will have a week of tan-bark work.

Norfolk Follows.
Norfolk follows Richmond instead of heading it, as the cards indicate. It seems that the officers of the association could not get ready by the 1st of October, so they changed the date to the 25th, so that the show would not take

FIREMEN FROM ALL VIRGINIA TESTING BRUNSWICK-STEW RECIPE

FINE PARADE OF STATE FIREMEN

Chief Marshal Morgan R. Mills
Leads Nearly Two Thousand Men With Dexterity.

BAND CONTEST AT IDLEWOOD

Old Point People Win First
Money, While Second Goes to Washington.

Successful and entertaining to a high degree was the magnificent street parade yesterday, which furnished the grand climax for the State Firemen's Convention, which has been in session here since Wednesday.

A final adjournment will be had this evening, after another interesting day's programme has been prepared, relating to exhibitions and contests for prizes and a trolley ride through the city.

The proceedings yesterday may, indeed, be termed as having transpired in a real blaze of glory.

The splendid procession headed by Chief Marshal Morgan R. Mills (who was supported by a large staff of mounted citizens), and embracing the "crack" companies of Richmond and long lines of uniformed visitors, moved over the route without the slightest hitch, while thousands upon thousands of men, women and children fairly jammed the sidewalks and cheered. It was a magnificent spectacle, and one that reflects credit upon the firemen of the State.

In the afternoon and evening, Idlewood Park was thrown wide open to the firemen and their friends, and a splendid lunch was served by the management at 2 o'clock out in the open air on the grounds. At night the band contest was held, and it attracted such a crowd as has rarely been seen before on the grounds.

Was a Great Parade.
There must have been nearly two thousand people in line, and though they were not trained in the art of marching, their splendid uniforms and long lines of uniformed visitors, moved over the route without the slightest hitch, while thousands upon thousands of men, women and children fairly jammed the sidewalks and cheered. It was a magnificent spectacle, and one that reflects credit upon the firemen of the State.

The chief marshal was supported by all his aides save the four he detailed on the personal staff of Mr. R. Lee Peters, who were Captain Robert Le Masurier, who commanded, respectively, the second and third divisions.

Captain Mills handled the procession with consummate skill and dignity, and he looked every inch a soldier as he rode proudly at his head.

Those Who Rode.
The full list of his aides follows:
Major L. T. Christian, chief of staff; Alvin Bayville, C. L. McKee, I. N. Vaughan, J. T. Francis Green, O. H. Funsten, Graham B. Hobson, J. Fred Jurgens, R.
